Federal and state tax help available on “Super Saturday” March 21

MADISON –The Department of Revenue (DOR) and Internal Revenue Service (IRS) will provide help to Wisconsin taxpayers on Saturday, March 21 to mark “Super Saturday.” The IRS and state partners will offer “Super Saturday” assistance across the country to ensure taxpayers who need services have convenient access.

“Our Super Saturday service, in partnership with the IRS, will make it a little easier for people to get the help they need this tax season, when so many are facing difficult economic times,” said Revenue Secretary Roger M. Ervin.

Super Saturday federal and state services – Saturday, March 21, 2009:

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) locations will be open statewide. The sites provide free tax return preparation to taxpayers earning $42,000 or less. Taxpayers seeking this service should bring identification and Social Security numbers, income and wage statements, dependent child care information, and financial institution account information.

Many IRS offices will be open for walk-in federal tax assistance. IRS customer service telephone lines also will be available on Super Saturday from 9:00 am – 2:00 pm – please call 1-800-829-1040.

For VITA, TCE and IRS office locations and hours, please visit the IRS website, keyword Super Saturday, or call 1-800-906-9887.

DOR telephone customer service will be available 9:00 am - 2:00 pm. Individuals should call (608) 266-2772 and businesses should call (608) 266-2776. Walk-in state tax assistance will also be available at the DOR office in Janesville, 2524 Morse St., from 9:00 am - 2:00 pm.
