

---

Sales Tax Holiday

Computers and School Computer Supplies

---

revenue.wi.gov

Wisconsin's sales tax holiday is Wednesday, August 1, through Sunday, August 5, 2018.

Computers purchased for personal use are exempt if the sales price of each computer is $750 or less.

Examples of exempt computers include (list is all-inclusive):

- Desktop computers
- Laptop and notebook computers
- Tablets

School computer supplies purchased for personal use are exempt if the sales price of each item is $250 or less. The following school computer supplies are exempt (list is all-inclusive):

- Computer printers
- Computer storage media, diskettes & compact discs
- Handheld electronic schedulers, not including cellular phones
- Personal digital assistants, not including cellular phones
- Printer supplies for computers, printer paper & printer ink

Examples of taxable items (list is not all-inclusive):

- Cases for electronic devices
- Cellular telephones and accessories
- Copy machines
- Digital cameras
- Digital media players
- Game consoles
- Health and fitness equipment
- Home appliances
- Items purchased for business use
- Navigation equipment
- Televisions
- Thermostats
- Watches

Last updated April 30, 2018