

---

Digital Broadcasting Equipment – Property Tax Exemption*revenue.wi.gov

---

Digital broadcasting equipment is exempt from general property tax when owned and used by a radio station, television station or cable television system. Digital broadcasting is the production of any digital or analog recording intended for public release, including through the internet.

Last Updated: March 12, 2014