

Manufacturing Machinery & Specific Processing Equipment – Property Tax Exemption

revenue.wi.gov

Manufacturing machinery and specific processing equipment are exempt from general property tax if used exclusively and directly in the manufacturing process of tangible personal property. Included are repair parts, replacement machines, safety attachments and specific foundations for that equipment. This exemption applies regardless of how the machinery or equipment is attached to real property, but does not include buildings.

Last Updated: March 12, 2014