Statement – Minnesota-Wisconsin Income Tax Reciprocity Agreement September 18, 2009

Wisconsin Department of Revenue Secretary Roger M. Ervin issued the following statement regarding the announcement of the termination of the Minnesota-Wisconsin income tax reciprocity agreement:

“It is unfortunate that Minnesota is terminating the income tax reciprocity agreement that our states share. The Wisconsin Department of Revenue has worked cooperatively with the Minnesota Department of Revenue on this agreement since 1967 and this outcome is disappointing.

We will make every effort to ensure that our citizens can file their tax returns efficiently and with ease. Wisconsin has made significant gains in electronic filing that will smooth the transition for taxpayers, and our estimation is that there will be no change in their tax liabilities. We will be communicating with affected Wisconsin individuals and businesses in the coming weeks.”
