Dear ADELE

Your taxation district filed a request to share non-manufacturing omitted taxes listed on your tax roll. The omitted tax would have affected your equalized value. Therefore, under sec. 74.315, Wis. Stats., the taxation district must either share the omitted tax with each applicable taxing jurisdiction or have an adjustment made to the equalized value to account for the omitted property. This letter is to certify the amount of omitted tax you must share with each taxing jurisdiction once the tax has been collected.

Our findings are contained in the explanation section of the enclosed facsimile - Request for Sharing of Non-Manufacturing Omitted Taxes (PC-205).

Your taxation district filed a request to share non-manufacturing omitted taxes listed on your tax roll. The omitted tax would have affected your equalized value. Therefore, under sec. 74.315, Wis. Stats., the taxation district must either share the omitted tax with each applicable taxing jurisdiction or have an adjustment made to the equalized value to account for the omitted property. This letter is to certify the amount of omitted tax you must share with each taxing jurisdiction once the tax has been collected.

Our findings are contained in the explanation section of the enclosed facsimile - Request for Sharing of Non-Manufacturing Omitted Taxes (PC-205).

Contact David Hruby at (608) 266-8207 or Caroline Marsh at (608)264-6892 if you have questions regarding this determination.

Re: Request to Share Non-Manufacturing Omitted Taxes - Share Taxes
40291 Case 11-0042

Dear CARLA

Your taxation district filed a request to share non-manufacturing omitted taxes listed on your tax roll. The omitted tax would have affected your equalized value. Therefore, under sec. 74.315, Wis. Stats., the taxation district must either share the omitted tax with each applicable taxing jurisdiction or have an adjustment made to the equalized value to account for the omitted property. This letter is to certify the amount of omitted tax you must share with each taxing jurisdiction once the tax has been collected.

Our findings are contained in the explanation section of the enclosed facsimile - Request for Sharing of Non-Manufacturing Omitted Taxes (PC-205).

Contact David Hruby at (608) 266-8207 or Caroline Marsh at (608)264-6892 if you have questions regarding this determination.

Sincerely,

Eileen Mallow, Director

67291 Case 11-0267

Dear THOMAS

Your taxation district filed a request to share non-manufacturing omitted taxes listed on your tax roll. The omitted tax would have affected your equalized value. Therefore, under sec. 74.315, Wis. Stats., the taxation district must either share the omitted tax with each applicable taxing jurisdiction or have an adjustment made to the equalized value to account for the omitted property. This letter is to certify the amount of omitted tax you must share with each taxing jurisdiction once the tax has been collected.

Our findings are contained in the explanation section of the enclosed facsimile - Request for Sharing of Non-Manufacturing Omitted Taxes (PC-205).

Contact David Hruby at (608) 266-8207 or Caroline Marsh at (608)264-6892 if you have questions regarding this determination.

Sincerely,

Eileen Mallow, Director
