BENEFICIARY'S INSTRUCTIONS FOR REPORTING WISCONSIN INCOME, DEDUCTIONS, ETC., FROM SCHEDULE 2K-1

Purpose of Schedule 2K-1

Similar to federal Schedule K-1, a trust or estate uses Schedule 2K-1 to report to you your share of the trust's or estate's income, deductions, etc. Lines 1 through 12 coincide with lines 1 through 12 of the federal Schedule K-1. Please keep it for your records.

Although an estate or trust is subject to income tax, you are liable for tax on your share of its income. There is never a double tax. If an estate or trust must distribute all of its income, you must report your share of the income distributed whether or not you have actually received it. If the fiduciary has the choice of whether to distribute all or a part of the current income, you must report all income that is required to be distributed to you, whether or not it is actually distributed, plus all other amounts actually paid or credited to you, to the extent of your share of distributable net income.

Note: In addition to items reported to you on Schedule 2K-1, you must report any personal representative fees paid to you from an estate.

General Information

Inconsistent Treatment of Items – Generally, you must report items shown on your Schedule 2K-1 (and any schedules) consistently with the way the trust or estate treated the items on its return. If your treatment is (or may be) inconsistent with the estate or trust, enclose a statement with your return explaining the inconsistency and your reason for such inconsistency.

Errors – If you believe the estate or trust has made an error on your Schedule 2K-1, notify the estate or trust and ask for a corrected copy. Do not alter your copy. Be sure the estate or trust sends the corrected Schedule 2K-1 to the department.

Specific Instructions

Name, Address, and Identifying Number – Check that your name, address, and identifying number as well as the estate's or trust's name, address, and identifying number are filled in.

Lines 1 through 9 – The entries on these lines show the federal amount, adjustment, and Wisconsin amount of any distributive share items. Generally, you should have reported the federal amount on your federal income tax return. However, if the federal amount was computed using a provision of federal law that Wisconsin doesn't follow, the federal amount shown in column (b) will be the amount computed under federal law that applies for Wisconsin. The estate or trust will identify these amounts on line 13 as "Schedule I adjustments" or "Schedule B adjustments." If you have a Schedule I (or Schedule B) adjustment, complete Wisconsin Schedule I (or Schedule B) before filling in your Wisconsin return.

If the Wisconsin amount of any share item on lines 1 through 9 differs from the federal amount, you must account for this difference on your individual, trust, or estate income tax return. How you account for the difference depends on the share item and whether you are filing a Form 1 (Wisconsin residents), Form 1NPR (Wisconsin part-year residents or nonresidents), or Form 2 (trust or estate).

- If you are filing Form 1 or Form 2, account for any difference between the Wisconsin and federal amount of a share item on lines 1, 2, and 5 through 9 that is allowable in computing Wisconsin adjusted gross income by filling in the amount from Schedule 2K-1, column (c) on Form 1, lines 2 through 4 or lines 6 through 11, as appropriate, or Form 2, Schedule A.

- If you are filing Form 1NPR, include in column B on the appropriate line of Form 1NPR, along with any other Wisconsin income or loss, the Wisconsin amount (column (d)) of any share item on lines 1, 2, and 5 through 9 that must be included in Wisconsin adjusted gross income.
- Fill in the amount from line 3, column (d), on line 3 of Schedule WD, Form 1 or Form 2. Fill in the amount from line 4, column (d), on line 10 of Schedule WD, Form 1, or line 9 of Schedule WD, Form 2.

Line 10 – If you are filing Form 1 or Form 1NPR, there is no itemized deduction credit for the estate tax deduction.

Line 11 – Fill in any short-term capital loss carryover from column (d) on line 3 of Schedule WD or Schedule WD (Form 2). Fill in any long-term capital loss carryover from column (d) on line 10 of Schedule WD or line 9 of Schedule WD (Form 2).

If you are filing Form 1 or 1NPR, any excess deductions reported on line 11 are not allowed to be claimed in computing the Wisconsin itemized deduction credit. If you are filing Form 2, include any amount reported in column (c) as an addition or subtraction modification on Schedule A.

Line 12 – The entries on this line show the federal amount, adjustment, and Wisconsin amount of distributive share items relating to the alternative minimum tax and tax preference items. If the Wisconsin amount of any share item differs from the federal amount, you must account for the difference on Wisconsin Schedule MT. Fill in the total of the adjustments from column (c) on line 8 of Schedule MT.

Line 13 – If you are filing Form 1 or 2, include any tax-exempt interest shown as a subtraction in column (c) on line 2 of Form 1 or line 2 of Schedule A of Form 2 as a positive number. If you are filing Form 1NPR, only tax-exempt interest received while you were a Wisconsin resident should be included on line 2, column B as a positive number.

Lines 14a through 14h – Enter any credits from these lines on Schedules DI (dairy and livestock farm investment credit), TC (technology zone credit), DC (development zones credit), VC (angel investment credit and early stage seed investment credit), IE (Internet equipment credit), EC (enterprise zone jobs credit), and DM (dairy manufacturing facility investment credit).

Line 14i – See the instructions for line 23 of Form 1 or line 49 of Form 1NPR.

Line 14j – Enter Wisconsin tax withheld from line 14j on the appropriate line of your Wisconsin tax return.
