

Upcoming Public Hearings on Administrative Rules

The Department of Revenue will be holding three public hearings on Monday, April 1, at the times indicated below. All three hearings will be held in the Events Room of the department's Madison office, located at 2135 Rimrock Road.

- 9:00 a.m. to consider proposed permanent rules relating to sales and use tax provisions concerning advertising and promotional direct mail and prosthetic devices.
- 11:00 a.m. to consider proposed permanent rules relating to general provisions of income taxation and sales and use tax.
- 1:00 p.m. to consider proposed permanent rules relating to general provisions of excise taxation and enforcement.

Interested persons are invited to appear at the hearings and may make an oral presentation. It is requested that written comments reflecting any oral presentation be provided to the department at the time the presentation is made.