Revenue Secretary to Tour Volunteer Tax Sites

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Site Serves Individuals and Families in Need

Wisconsin Department of Revenue Secretary Richard G. Chandler will be touring two Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) sites at Hawthorne Library and the Villager Mall on Saturday, April 6.

A VITA site provides free tax assistance to low income residents, seniors, veterans, and people with disabilities. These sites have trained volunteers who help prepare tax returns.

DOR Secretary Richard Chandler will be available to discuss the tax season. There will also be an opportunity to talk with a volunteer (if time permitting at the Park Street location) and shoot video of individuals receiving free tax assistance.
