Taking new role as Deputy Chief of Staff for Communications for Governor Walker

Wisconsin Department of Revenue Deputy Secretary Jack Jablonski announces he will be leaving the agency to become the new Deputy Chief of Staff for Communications in Governor's Walker's Office, effective April 18, 2016.

"Jack has provided excellent leadership at the agency as both our Deputy Secretary and Executive Assistant, and he will be missed," said Secretary Chandler. "His leadership, organizational management and knowledge of state policy issues will help him to be effective in his new role, and we truly wish him all the best."

Deputy Secretary Jablonski says, "I'm grateful to Governor Walker for this new opportunity, and thank Secretary Chandler for the chance to serve at the Department of Revenue. I was honored to be part of that organization and will miss the dedicated staff that I worked alongside."
