

WITHHOLDING TAX UPDATE

2009-1

NOVEMBER 2009

The Withholding Tax Updates are no longer being printed, but will continue to be available electronically on the Department of Revenue's web site. Don't miss an issue!

WISCONSIN – MINNESOTA INCOME TAX RECIPROcity AGREEMENT ENDS JANUARY 1, 2010

Minnesota officials cancelled the income tax reciprocity agreement with Wisconsin. The agreement allowed residents of one state to file a single state income tax return with their home state if they worked across the border. It is estimated the cancellation will affect about 33,500 Wisconsin residents and 13,000 Minnesota residents.

Beginning January 1, 2010, Wisconsin employers should:

- Begin withholding Wisconsin income taxes on personal service income of Minnesota residents working in Wisconsin.
- Ask these employees, who are Minnesota residents, to complete Form WT-4, Wisconsin Withholding Exemption Certificate. Form WT-4 is used to determine the amount of Wisconsin income tax to be withheld from employee paychecks.
- No longer accept Form W-222, Statement of Minnesota Residency. Form W-222 was previously used by Minnesota residents working in Wisconsin to claim exemption from withholding of Wisconsin income taxes.

Note At the time this update went to print, Wisconsin and Minnesota officials were discussing the possibility of reinstating this agreement. If there is a change in status, it will be posted on the department's web site.

NEW WITHHOLDING TAX RATES

The Wisconsin Employer's Withholding Tax Guide (Publication W-166) has been revised. The Wisconsin withholding tables and alternate methods of withholding have been adjusted for inflation and reflect a new top individual tax rate of 7.75%. A copy is available at www.revenue.wi.gov under Publications, Withholding Tax and Information Returns.

EFT REGISTRATION AND PAYMENT SYSTEM RETIRED FOR WITHHOLDING USERS

After December 31, 2009, the EFT Registration and Payment system at www.witaxeft.com and 1-888-338-9472 will no longer be available for withholding payments. See Withholding Deposit Report Filing Options article.

LATE FILING FEE INCREASE

Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2010, any person who is required to file a withholding report and deposit withholding taxes that fails to do so timely, shall be subject to a $50 late fee, except for corporations taxed under subch. IV or insurance companies taxed under subch. VII of ch. 71, Wis. Stats., the late fee is $150.

NEW FOR 2009 – INCOME OF MILITARY SPOUSE EXEMPT

Income for services performed in Wisconsin by a nonresident spouse of a service member is not taxable to Wisconsin if the spouse is in Wisconsin solely to be with the service member serving in Wisconsin under military orders. Military spouses claiming an exemption from withholding should complete and submit Form W-221, Nonresident Military Spouse Withholding Exemption to their employer.

ADVANCE EARNED INCOME CREDIT (EIC) PAYMENT

Beginning with the 2009 tax year, a full-year legal resident of Wisconsin may request that his or her employer add to his or her paycheck an advance Wisconsin EIC. The Wisconsin payment amount added to the individual's check is based on federal advance EIC. Employers will reduce the withholding liability by the amount of advance EIC when completing the WT-6 deposit report. Employers will include advance EIC on line 2 and line 3 of the WT-7 annual reconciliation. For more information on advance EIC, go to www.revenue.wi.gov/faqs/ise/adveic.html.

WITHHOLDING DEPOSIT REPORT FILING OPTIONS (WT-6)

A waiver from electronic filing may be requested in writing if the requirement to file electronically causes an undue hardship. See your letter for details. Effective immediately, the Department of Revenue will no longer mail Form WT-7.

File your WT-7 and W-2s electronically at www.revenue.wi.gov/html/with.html. WT-7 filing options include:

NEW FOR PASS-THROUGH ENTITIES: QUARTERLY ESTIMATED PAYMENTS

For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2009, a pass-through entity is required to pay quarterly estimated withholding tax on a nonresident member's share of income attributable to Wisconsin.

The pass-through entity must make quarterly payments of withholding tax on or before the 15th day of the 3rd, 6th, 9th, and 12th month of the taxable year. A transition or grace period was provided for payments that became due less than 45 days after July 1, 2009. The due date of these payments is extended to the next installment due date. Use Form PW-ES, Wisconsin Pass-Through Entity Withholding Estimated Payment Voucher, to make quarterly payments of estimated nonresident withholding tax.

Pass-through entities must also file Form PW-1 annually to report estimated withholding tax paid and to pay any additional withholding tax due on behalf of their nonresident shareholders, partners, members, or beneficiaries.

Form PW-1 must be filed electronically. You can file Form PW-1 through the Federal/State E-File Program, which uses approved third-party vendor software. If you choose not to use this program, you can launch the free E-File programs offered by the Department of Revenue.

Visit www.revenue.wi.gov/eserv/pw/index.html for information about electronically filing Form PW-1. See www.revenue.wi.gov/faqs/ise/pass.html for answers to frequently asked questions about calculating and pass-through entity withholding.

FILING FREQUENCY CHANGES

Each year the department runs an annual scan process, which evaluates the amount of your deposits for the last year and adjusts your periodic filing frequency accordingly. The department will run this process in December, to determine your filing frequency for 2010 Withholding tax deposits. Taxpayers will be notified in writing as to their new filing frequency if it is changed.

WITHHOLDING TAX ACCOUNT NUMBER

In September 2008, your seven-digit Wisconsin employer identification number (WEIN) was replaced by a 15-digit Wisconsin Withholding Tax Account Number. All Wisconsin withholding numbers begin with 036. This 15-digit number should be used on all withholding correspondence including W-2s, WT-6s, WT-7s, W2-Gs, 1099-Rs and 1099-Ms.
