8 Captured explanation.

When the assessor added 2016 and 2017 omitted taxes to the 2018 tax roll with an assessment roll change, it was missed by everyone. First the Adams County Treasurer told Lincoln to send an individual bill (prepared by the County Treasurer) to the company to try and get the money back. There was no response. Discussion with Lynn Oldenburg, Local Government Services, suggested it be added to the SOA and SOT which it

It is my understanding the Assessor's did not do a full insp spection slip through the cracks. After being informed by th e property owner, in January of 2018; the Assessor reviewed the file and recognized that this property was not assessed

In late May our assessor informed us there was an omission of assessed value for the improvements on the properties. The property tax bills issued in December of 2018 only included the assessment of land. The homes were complete but the assessed value for the homes were missed. Both of these properties are residential, however i was not to list them both as such on this form
