

Who Must File — Only corporations that do not have a federal extension need to fill in Part I, items 1 through 8.

Any extension of time allowed for filing a federal return automatically extends the time for filing the corresponding Wisconsin return to 30 days after the federal due date provided you include a copy of the federal extension Form 7004 as the last page of your return at the time of filing.

When to File — Submit this application on or before the original due date of your tax return.

Part I Application for Wisconsin Extension

1 Print or type the corporation's name and address:

2 Enter the named corporation's federal employer identification number:

3 An extension of time is requested in which to file the corporation franchise or income tax return of the named corporation for the:

calendar year 1996.

taxable year beginning , and ending .

4 Check box if the named corporation is an exempt organization with unrelated business income.

5 Enter original due date of your federal return.

6 Check if applicable: initial return. change in accounting period.
 final return. capital stock acquisition.

7 Will corporation file a consolidated federal return? yes no
If yes, enter parent's original due date .

Enter parent's federal employer identification number below:

8 Signature of authorized officer or representative Date

MAIL THIS APPLICATION TO: Wisconsin Department of Revenue, P.O. Box 8908, Madison, WI 53708-8908.

Department's Action on Your Application for Extension

You are granted an extension:

of 30 days until the original due date of your federal return to file your Wisconsin return. You must include this approved application as the last page of your return when you file.

Any extension of time allowed for filing a federal return automatically extends the time for filing the corresponding Wisconsin return to 30 days after the federal due date provided you include a copy of the federal extension Form 7004 as the last page of your return at the time of filing.

Your application for a Wisconsin extension is denied because:

it was received after the original due date of your return.

the department may grant one extension of 30 days. Our records indicate an extension has previously been allowed for this taxable year.

Signature of authorized Department of Revenue representative Date