Part I: To Be Completed by Entity Which Paid, Accrued, or Incurred the Expense

Complete the information below and provide it to the related entity to which you paid, accrued, or incurred the disallowed interest expense or rental expense:
A. Identifying Information for Entity Which Paid, Accrued, or Incurred the Expense

Taxpayer Name: $\qquad$
Taxpayer Identification Number (FEIN or SSN): $\qquad$
Type of Taxpayer (check one):CorporationIndividualTax-Option (S) Corporation Fiduciary
$\square$ Partnership Other (explain)
B. Identifying Information for Entity to Which the Corresponding Interest Income or Rental Income Was Reported

Taxpayer Name: $\qquad$
Taxpayer Identification Number (FEIN or SSN): $\qquad$
C. Tax Year for Which Expenses Were Disallowed (Tax year of taxpayer in item A. above)

Taxable Year Beginning $\qquad$ and Ending $\qquad$
D. Amount of Expense Disallowed

| Interest Expense | $$$ |
| :--- | :--- |
| Rental Expense | $$$ |
| Total | $$$ |

(Enter amounts before apportionment, if applicable)

Part II: To Be Completed by Entity Named in Part I, Item B.

Complete item A. below. Assuming you included the income in your Wisconsin income, you may claim a subtraction modification corresponding to the expenses disallowed in Part I, item D. for the taxable year that includes the ending date of the period stated in Part I, item C. To substantiate the subtraction modification, you must file this schedule with your Wisconsin return.

A. Reporting of Income Eligible for Subtraction Modification

Specify the line(s) of your pro forma federal income tax return where you reported the income eligible for the subtraction modification for the year you are eligible to claim the subtraction:

